

METALGATE

MetalGate Productions proudly presents: Octodance European Tour 2016

This autumn belongs to the Great Old Ones, Cosmic Chaos and octopi!

For in the second half of September, two bands signed under MetalGate Records that have an affinity for these themes, namely the Prague-based cyber metal orchestra MINORITY SOUND and the Haviřov-based post-rock project POSTCARDS FROM ARKHAM, are heading out on a tour of a Central European scope.

Their OCTODANCE EUROPEAN TOUR kicks off September 15 on local turf in České Budějovice, from which the tandem moves on to Austria, Slovenia, Slovakia and Poland, where the tour shall conclude September 23 with a show in Wroclaw. The tour is thus comprised of nine gigs. However, since in the Lovecraftian universe the end does not always mean what it usually does, the Polish gig shall likewise not be the final leg of this enterprise. That role belongs to an afterparty that will take place November 19 in Modrá Vopice in Prague.

Since the octopus motif is featured on the latest albums of both bands, that is, on “Drowner’s Dance” by MINORITY SOUND and “ÆØN5” by POSTCARDS FROM ARKHAM, it is logical that someone from the cephalopods shall take part in OCTODANCE EUROPEAN TOUR 2016 as well, meaning that the tour shall have a special guest. And not just anyone. From the dead city of R’lyeh itself, that is, from 47°9’S 126°43’W, comes Z’aagn’zhaxz (do not ask us how it is pronounced, for we do not have a clue), also called Ephraim, spawn of the mighty Cthulhu, to take oversight over this pilgrimage and ensure that nothing is left to chance, for even chaos must have its order!

Apropos, should you wish to see how the parties involved were preparing for the tour (and how Ephraim looks like), visit the official FB page of MetalGate.

Get ready to enjoy a Lovecraftian autumn! See you on tour!
