METALGATE RECORDS PROUDLY PRESENTS: KRYPTOR – BEST OF FUCK OFF

Does it even make sense to introduce the thrash metal killers Kryptor? For sure not to the faithful fans of the old school metal. The band founded back in 1987 is a part of a heritage of the best what ever happened on Czech metal scene and today it belongs to the hall of fame side by side with titans like Arakain, Torr or Debustrol. This horde is thrashing in its purest form for twenty five years, never forsaking its standards and never did any compromises. In its career Kryptor played many gigs, released few legendary demos including “Neřest a ctnost” as well as four full-length albums. Now they are back. They are back with a golden treasure for all fans of old school’s pure extreme – with a compilation album “Best of fuck off!!!” released in occasion of 25th anniversary of the band’s existence. Including the best line-up ever!

What can you expect? Nothing less than an orthodox record containing 17 re-recorded thrash anthems and a bonus in form of new tracks from blacksmith of producer Filip Robovski and studios Professional Sound and Faust. Michal Roháček took care of vocals and drumset is maintained by the legendary drummer Martin Škaroupka. The album contains great old jewels like “Vlčí vdova” or “Greedpeace” and of course the explosion of hits from the end of 80s and the beginning of 90s.

The album will be released as digipack in the beginning of January of 2013 under MetalGate Records. You can get it through e-shop on MetalGate’s website as well as through other distributional places which’s list you will find on the web as well.
