MetalGate Massacre vol.II – contest rounds live and online

It is getting close. In other words, the second installment of MetalGate Massacre metal bands contest about to get live. After the conclusion of the registration part of the contest, the panel of juries selected 16 bands to perform in the basic rounds. Such selection was not an easy one. According to the juries themselves, all registered bands submitted songs of high quality, thereby making the task difficult indeed. After careful consideration, the following 16 names crystallized in the end after all:

D.A.D., Deathstar, Area Core, Interitus, Neurotic Machinery, Shadow Area, Calidad, Cruel, Fire In The Hall, xXXx, Suffocate With Your Vomitus, Gibbet, dISCORDANT, Warhawk, Flowerwhile, Burned Inside.

We congratulate to all chosen ones and wish them good luck in the live battle.

Furthermore, we would like to remind the remaining bands that the contest is not over for them as well. The online voting for two Wild Cards that guarantee the advancement straight to the semifinals still continues until 17.3.2011. So, the chance to get back into the game still exists and is it solely up to the bands themselves to get their fans mobilized.

The 16 selected bands were then divided into quartets to fill the individual basic rounds according to a distribution key that can be found in the contest guidelines on MetalGate Massacre website. All is thereby ready for D day.

That day is Thursday 27.1.2011, when the Prague Matrix club shall host the First basic round, starting at 19:00. The program shall be filled firstly by the first four competing bands, comprised of Gibbet, Fire In The Hall, Neurotic Machinery and Area Core, and secondly by a special guest that will conclude the evening. For the first round, the guest shall be the winner of the previous installment of MetalGate Massacre, the Prague psy-core band DYMYTRY.

Same as last time, the entrance to the entire contest is for free, so come and support your favorite bands! Who shall be the first to advance, is entirely your call!

If however, you would find yourself unable to come, there is no need to despair that you have missed something. As a brand new feature of the second installment, we in cooperation with Music City introduce an online streaming, that is, a live video feed from the round in question, which you can watch in real time on www.jamstage.cz/jamstage-tv website. The archive of individual videos will then be located on MetalGate Massacre website. It is unfortunately not possible to vote via the streaming, yet at least it will keep you up to date.

So, see you on January 27th.
