On Thursday 10.2.2011, the Prague Matrix club witnessed the Second basic round of the metal bands contest MetalGate Massacre vol.II. This time, it was up to Greymon, Flowerwhile, Warhawk and Bad Victim to compete for the fans' votes and for the prospect of advancing into the semifinals. The special guest of the night manifested itself in the form of death metalcore band F.O.B. from Tábor, which during its performance undertook a sneak peek into the upcoming studio album "Tomorrow's Fires", which will be released under MetalGate on March 9, 2011.

Compared to the launch of the contest, Round Two was more subtle, yet the bands delivered their best nonetheless. And the result?

The winner of Round Two and therefore the second semifinalist became metalcore/death metal band Bad Victim from Velké Meziříčí, which received 42 votes from the audience. The second place was taken by hard rock/metal act Greymon from Kaznějov (district Plzeň-north) with 19 votes. The third place with 11 votes was attributed to trash-power metal band Flowerwhile from Brno. The final fourth place went to power metal formation Warhawk from České Budějovice with 9 votes.

For all those that could not attend or would like to relive this gig, a complete video record of the show will be posted on the MetalGate Massacre website in the near future.

Now, we are the exact midpoint of the basic leg of the contest, and before the semifinals will commence, we have two more basic rounds to go. The third one shall take place on Thursday 24.2.2011 again in Matrix club. This time, the bands BURNED INSIDE, xxxx, CALIDAD and SUFFOCATE WITH YOUR VOMITUS shall compete for your votes. The special guest slot will be filled by black-doom band TISÍC LET OD RÁJE from Brno.
